tion, anyway.

term expires.

tract between a private company and the electric-light wire on the south side of the Capitol. The whole business was burned up, the insulation being burned off every wire and the duct demolished. The fire is said to have burned for an hour before dis-

It is laboriously explained that there was no real danger to the Capitol, as the duct was encased in many thicknesses of brick, but it is not reassuring that a fire can occur at all, much less burn an hour hefore being discovered. The damage was about $300. The electricians got to work at once to rewire the Senate side and worked all night and till long into Friday afternoon before they got the wires in shape to use, meantime the Senate Cham-man to defeat for the Presidency. Mr.

Williams says that be never said anything of the kind, "because Indo not believe, it in the White House parlers, and who could tell Mrs. President just exactly how to n more brilliant and extensive scale this has so absorbed the time of the Aid that it was deemed wise to appoint a subordi-nate to have entire charge of affairs.

Within the last week Lieut. David F. Sellers, U. S. N., was appointed to the staff. It was not so many years ago since but four officers were assigned for this staff includes Col. Thomas W. Symons.

U. S. A., Military Aid to the President and

The Shaws have gone into temporary nourning, also, for the brother of Secretary Shaw, and all their social engage-ments, including a Cabinet dinner, are called off for the month of January.

menage.

WASHINGTON-SO & & NEWS.

whole lot of people who want the presents and decorations that have come to them from foreign powers and potentates, and which these people can not accept except by special act of Congress, so long as they are in the employ of the United States Government. There is a very long list, there must be some 200 in all, and they have received all kinds of decorations for scientific research, for literary efforts. for acts of courtesy, and for all sorts of things. Congress had been petitioned so often for such purposes that the Senate has grown disgusted with what it calls the petty business, and is holding up the "omnibus bill," which will grant each and all the right to accept the pretty trinkets. all the right to accept the pretty trinkets.

ing well within its income, while the re-States believes in Protection—and there fitting the man to whom it is tendered.

the other day before the House Military Committee, and hastily running down stairways, landed himself in the basement under the great white dome. There he go lest completely and had to ask a policeman to "show him," as he did not know which way to turn to get out. The basement of the Capitol is a gloomy old hole at best. Senator Blackburn designates it and the Terrace offices as the "Tomb of the Capulets," and the members who have offices down there are called the "Cave" of the Capulets," and the members who have offices down there are called the "Cave" of the capulets, a reception to Secretary Root, the retiring Secretary of War, on Jan. 27, at the Senator Base of War, on Jan. tee room building is badly needed. It is quite likely that there will be less sick-toothpicks last Friday. They got hungry these lands open for settlement, with the consent of the Senate pie foundry—viz., the restaurant, and walked in to take a view of the display of wares the slow-moving feet of the grave and the slow-moving feet of the grave and reverend Seignors, and lace and damask curtains all of which hold the odors of dead and gone dinners to beat the band. The testimony in the Gen. Leonard keep out the barbarian hordes on the north, which hold the odors of dead and gone dinners to beat the band. I a copy furnished to each Senator, but it is not to be made public. The brief made the christian era the control of the restaurant of the land of the amond-eyed Celestrais to keep out the barbarian hordes on the north, known as the Tartars. This great "Waudendead and gone dinners to beat the band. I copy furnished to each Senator, but it is not to be made public. The brief made the land of the amond-eyed Celestrais to keep out the barbarian hordes on the north, known as the Tartars. This great "Waudendead and gone dinners to beat the band. I copy furnished to each Senator, but it is not to be made public. The brief made reverend Seignors, and lace and damask curtains all of which hold the odors of

But Mr. Speaker Cannon is different,

John P. Jones, has been visiting Washington. He looks hale and hearty, and is ington. He looks hale and hearty, and is the best of spirits. He says he liked political life and did not give it up because he was tired of it, but because he had so many outside interests that he had to neglect public business or suffer his private affairs to go to ruin, as he could not give both his personal supervision, so he decided in favor of his private busi-

Senator Jones had served 30 years in the United States Senate, and Senator William B. Allison, of Iowa, is the only

The United States Senate is having a ing its majority report so that he could because in a minority report, and declared talk. that he would have to have time to get together some data! Now reflect on that, won't you? Here Senator Morgan has been talking on the Isthmian Canal for Senator Martin, of Vincential Control of Vin

Rear-Admiral Taylor, Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, has been before the House Committee on Naval Affairs pleading for the establishment of a Naval Training Station on the Great Lakes. Lake Bluff, near Chicago, on Lake Michigan, and Racine, Wis., are suggested as particularly good points. Admiral Taylor is of the opinion that with the Lake Naval Station it would be possible to get a better class of inland enlistments for the Representative Tawney, of Minnesota, has started after the egg-shell postal cars in which so many horrible accidents happen every time there is a passenger train smashup. He has introduced a resolution requesting the Postmaster-General to furnish the House of Representatives with entative Tawney, of Minnesota, nish the House of Representatives with his office. Finding that Mr. Walsh was detailed information regarding all postal p

The War, State and Navy Building burned 35 tons of coal on the 5th day of January. The average amount of coal burned during the Winter is 10 tons a day. This shows that it was some cold in Washington last week.

There was a great flurry a short time ago about the money affairs in the Interstate Commerce Commission, and an investigation was ordered. Several days have been consumed in going over the accounts, and it is now shown that everything is right to a cent. Secretary Moseley, who has also been acting as disbursing officer of the Commission for 17

The Senate is standing out against a has made, and declares that the District scientific research, for literary efforts, and without accompaniment of wind.

Civil Service Commissioners Cooley and Greene have decided to ask Gen. John C. The reports of the Treasury Depart-Greene have decided to ask Gen. John C. ment show that the United States is liv-Black, recently nominated a member of the Commission, to succeed the late John ports from England show that she is run- R. Procter, to become Chairman of the ning behind in every department. Eng- Commission, which is an unexpected honor land is a free-trade country, the United for a new member, but one that is very

Senator Alger, Secretary of War dur-Secretary Root was up at the Capitol ing the Spanish-American war, will give offices down there are called the "Cave holiday, not a little of the pleasure being Dwellers." The new office and commit-way, Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, splintered the proprieties into ion that the proper thing to do is to throw be the scene of his activities, and he inon the lunch counter. The Senators do not lunch with the common herd—oh, no, indeed! They have a nice little room all to themselves with velvet carpets soft to should be guaranteed to the Indians.

Representative Dixon has introduced a resolution which might be titled "a resolution to promote the barbed wire industry." Representative Dixon has read of a should be guaranteed to the Indians.

This room opens off of the restaurant proper, and into it are invited only the elect. Just a mere member of the House would not dare profane its sacred precincts except on invitation of some Senting to the same volume.

A copy lumished to the control of the band. Is not to be made public. The brief made by Senator Foraker, setting forth the by more than two centuries and was over 1,500 miles long. What it cost in lives and treasure never was known. Both were the views filed by the minority will also would probably stagger the human imagithe views filed by the minority will also held cheap, and the aggregate of either be printed in the same volume. would probably stagger the human imagi-

Little Ruth Cleveland is dead. There is not a mother or a father in the land who will not sorrow with the ex-Presiwho will not sorrow with the ex-Presi-dent and Mrs. Cleveland in this the first which can distinguish between a white real sorrow that has come to their home. Ruth was their first born. She was just past her 13th year, having been born in New York, Oct. 3, 1891, and was a tolding little tow-headed child when Mr. Cleveland came back to the White House as President in 1893. She was not a pretty or even a winning little child, but she grew to be a beautiful girl, with heavy. last week, and the very lace curtainty and the content. William B. Allison, of Iowa, is the only Senator now in service who was there when Senator Jones was sworn in, March 4, 1873. When Senator Jones became a member of the body he had as his colleagues Morton of Indiana, Conkling, and Charles Sumner. If Senator Allison serves out his full six years' term, he will have been in the United States Senate 36 years, and will break all records.

The United States Senate is having a real lively time talking—just talking, nothing more—over the Postal Irregularities and the Panama scandals. A good deal, of Senatorial dignity is displayed, but it gets stretched a good deal, also. For instance, Senator Morgan wanted the Canal Committee to wait a while before makdark curls and a round, sweet face. The stance, Senator Morgan wanted the Canal Clevelands concerning "Baby Ruth," as Committee to wait a while before makbecame current that the child could not talk. Of course, it was not true, for Ruth was a bright child, and could chat-

Senator Martin. of Virginia, has a bill a quarter of a century or more, and makes before Congress for the purpose of purspeeches of days in length on the subject. chasing the McLean House at Appomatspeeches of days in length on the subject, yet pleading for "time" to collect data! tox, made historic by the surrender there of the Army of Northern Virginia under Way. They didn't wait, which is a terrible jolt to Senatorial dignity. To wait for everybody and everything is one of the cardinal virtues of the Senate.

Chasing the McLean House at Appomative tox, made historic by the surrender there of the Army of Northern Virginia under Gen. Robert E. Lee. Secretary Root, however, disapproves of the bill, and has for everybody and everything is one of the cardinal virtues of the Senate.

Secretary Root says that the list of the Georgia Senators—

States to buy all the historic spots within its horders. Secretary Root says that the States to buy all the instoric spots within its borders. Secretary Root says that the Government has its hands about full with the care of its Battlefield Parks, which have already cost over $3,000,000 and will cost half a million more before they are complete Military Parks, as authorized by Station it would be possible to get a better class of inland enlistments for the naval service than it is now possible to procure. He argues, too, that it would lessen desertions, as the cadets would have an opportunity to test seafaring life before actual enlistment. It is estimated that it will cost about $250,000 to establish the Great Lakes Naval Station. Congress has been hostile to the plan.

The elections contest between Ex-Representative Kahn and Mr. "Liver'n'ash." of California, seems to be getting ready for the start-off. Thomas J. Walsh, Registrar of Washington the other day with 1,750 which the two men now lay claim. The express on the ballots amounted to $188. The trunks and boxes containing these ballots will be littering up the corridors and lots will be littering up the corridors and Through the Feet detailed information regarding all postal cars rented by the Government from the various railroads of the country. The resolution then states that there have been a great many serious railroad accidents in which postal clerks suffered more in proportion than anybody else, and that the cause of this is believed to be defective cars.

The War, State and Navy Building burned 35 tons of coal on the 5th day of burned 35 tons of coal on the 5th day of tragedy on the stage. He is now fat and tragedy on the stage. He is now fat and jolly.

Comrade W. R. Dum, of Elliottsburg. Perry Co., Ps., has been in the city visit-ing. He served in the 133d and 208th Pa., is a farmer by profession, and is one of the three Commissioners of Perry Co.

Comrade A. W. Preston, of East Grand Forks, Minn., who belonged to the 1st Wis. Cav., has been in the city on his way South. His business is keeping a hotel.

U. S. TREASURY RECEIPTS.

the fact that he said in his message on the Panama question that there had not been too much "prevision" on the part of the Government as to what was to happen in Panama, but too much delay in sending warships.

Now, Webster defines the two words as follows, and you will take your choice as you are Administration or Anti-Administration Isthmians. "Prevision" means foresight, prescience, foreknowledge. "Colperson of his rights by the forms of law, or to obtain an object forbidden by law."

Of course, "prevision" is exactly the term we have needed all along, but the Democrats will go right on using the word 'collusion"-some Democrats will, not all,

Uruguay has a Minister to the United tates after several months intermission, as the testimony went to show that Mr. States after several months intermission, when a Consul-General has taken care of that country's interests in Washington. The new Minister is Senor Don Eduardo and that he was not using his office of a Representative Joseph Moore Dixon is serving his first term in Congress. Like all new members of Congress, Mr. Dixon Mr. Jones, Commissioner of Indian Afairs, was before the Committee of Indian Affairs of the House, last week, to be heard on the proposition to open up Indian lands to the amount of 100,000,000

Mr. Speaker Cannon and Mr. Hemmenbe the scene of his activities, and he in-> the land of the almond-eyed Celestials to And the wall was no good. It nation. Rev. Edward Everett Hale, Chaplain of wouldn't keep out the meekest Moses of a the "feasibility" of the projected fence.

Secretary Cortelyou will probably hustle cius. This is the very newest thing in the restriction of Chinese immigration.

There was an invasion of the South in the Marble Room of the Senate one day the invader. The "Constitution" be it his entire I known is ultra Southern in sentiment. It House. ama Canal, and it wants it so had that it is standing "patter" with and for President Roosevelt's policy than any "Yankee" paper that is printed. It has been agonizing with the Southern Democrats in Congress and pleading with them to flee from the wrath to come and get into the Panama dredging machine ont of them won't. So the Atlanta Constitution duty. Now there are 10. The complete

Mr. Small opened on them with his choicest oratory-and that's pretty swell now, if you want to know. Mr. Small is Corporal James Tanner will become Register of Wills of the District of Co-lumbia April 1. His appointment was announced by the President Jan. 5.

Try Them-FREE The Drafts cured Mrs. W. D. Harriman, wife of Judge Harriman of Ann

They cured H. C. Van Valkenburg. Providence, R. I., of an intensely painful case of muscular rheumatism. They cared severe rheumatism of the rms, neck and back for T. C. Pendleton, Jackson, Mich.

Mrs. Caspar Yahrsdorfer, Jackson, Michigan. 70 years old, was cured in a few weeks, after suffering 30 years. The Drafts cured James Gilbert, Loco-motive Dept., Mich. Cent. R. R., Jackson, Mich., after 27 years of pain.

Dr. Van Vleck, Jackson, Mich., writes that they cured him and he is now using Moseley, who has also been acting as disbursing officer of the Commission for 17 years, with no salary for that particular ardnous work, does not like the insinuations that were cast out about his office, and after insisting that his accounts be gone over carefully, announces that the will now insist on being relieved as disbursing officer of the Commission.

Representative Cumpbell, of Kansas, who is one of the new and young members of the House, was placed upon the Committee on the District of Columbia. He has been "slumming" about Washington to acquaint himself with the real conditions of the city so that he may discuss its needs with some knowledge. He is in expressibly shocked by the discoveries he has been acting as a new word in the Senatoral vocabulary. Not newly coined? Oh, dear that they cured him and he is now using them in his practice. They have cured hundred of cases probable word had some how dropped out of mind until Senator Hale is nothing if not precise. Those Senators who are "fernist" the Parnama policy of the Parnama policy of the President charge "collusion" between him and tile United States Government on the one hand and Panama on the decide. Magic Foot Drafts are worn without the least inconvenience, and cure rheumatism in every part of the body by stimulating expulsion of acid poisons through the great foot pores. Splendid the expressibly shocked by the discoveries he Hale's word, a good one is evidenced by the discoveries he a charmer from Charmersville as a public speaker, but la! Those Senators wouldn't listen to him a little bit. Sparks were flying in less than a minute. All the receivers along the circuit were burned out in another minute and the air in the Marble Room was so not that it singed the nap on the $1,000 Turkish rugs. The attendants had to warn the Senators that they were not in a Tummany caucus and that their caustic, not to say vitriolic, utterances could be heard over on the House side, and that the plate glass in the windows were not insured against "blue blazes."

In Washington last month. It is probable that the sessions of the committee will be held in Washington some time this month.

Postmaster-General Payne has appointed former Representative Eugene F. Loud, of California, as the United States Delegate to the International Postal Congress to meet in Rome, Italy, next Spring. A Congressional appropriation of $7,500 is available for the expenses of the Delegate. Mr. Loud was Chairman of the Mouse Committee on post offices for some years. years.

The conference only lasted a few moments. Mr. Small lost his temper and his case, and departed in heat and haste for the White House, presumably to pour effect Jan. 11, adding half an hour to their large. The law demands seven hours' his troubles in the ears of the more reday's labor. The law demands seven hours ceptive and sympathetic Chief Magistrate.

Straws show which way the wind blows.

Mr. Small is a very vigorous "straw," and Mr. Small is a very vigorous "straw, "straw,

Mr. Small is a very vigorous "straw," and he is direct from the people of the South, He knows what the citizens of that sec-Mr. Gillett, of Massachusetts, an ol tion of the Union want, and the pig-head achelor, by the way, is responsible for this ed Senators who hail from the South are facing a pretty tough proposition in alienated constituencies on the Panama ques-Ex-Congressman Driggs, of New York, has been judged guilty by a jury of his peers of accepting money to procure a con-

> The Attorney-General was asked to give his decision in the matter, and he declared itself to all who read its pages.

sentence will forever debar Mr. Driggs from holding political office or voting un-less pardoned by the President before the The statement is made by the Presi ent that 100,000 employees will be affected. The Government, by the new order, will gain 50,000 hours of work per day, equiv Another fire at the Capitol! This makes two in two weeks. This time the fire was directly under the Senate Chamber in the main electric duct carrying all the wires for the Senate side of the Capitol. Crossed wires was the trouble. This electric duct is three feet six inches high and 20 feet wide by 30 feet long, and contains every very little thought, and only mechanical skill. They have a half hour for lunch, then do the same work for three hours and a half, and the day's work was done. The average salary is $2 a working day for this work, and runs up to $100 a month. Ninetenths of those employed by the Governable to forgive Massachusetts for her work ception hours will have to be changed."

There are a great many Government clerks who are attending courses in colleges here in the city, and they complain that their plans are all upset by the action of the President and that their class hours will have to be changed, and that the showing of the hour later into the evening will leave them no time for dinner or to dress for the theaters or receptions!

When at last Kansas was admitted a free State, Dr. Hale entered the service of the Sanitary Commission and spent of the Union army, still bent upon a mission of humanity, and to him in due much leave them no time for dinner or to dress for the bettered conditions in hospital and convalescent camps of our armies during the leave the work set before us, to be "Mrs. President" has thad a social sec-retary for some years, a Always a lady who knew good society when she met it Now doesn't it sound funny, all these avoid bringing antagonistic elements in diplomatic or official society into juxtaposi-tion, and who, in other words, was a lady official Field Marshal, but it has remained puerile objections of people who seem to think that the Government business ought to stand still for their little teas and recep-ions, golf meets, and ball games? The for the Roosevelt Administration to need a "Military Aid" for the White House average Government clerk seems to be un-der the impression that the Government exists simply and solely for the purpose of The extensive entertainment of Mrs. Reosevelt has led Col. Thomas W. Symons, Military Aid to the President and Incharge of the White House, to assign Maj. Charles L. McCawley, U. S. M. C., to give his entire personal attention to the White supporting them, and Congressmen and Senators are being worried to death by the Importunities of the small army here in Washington who object to the change, and insist that the Government can much more easily afford to spend $7,000,000 more revear in clerk hire, than they can afford to have their small plans changed. Formerly the Military Aid himself gave his personal attention to all the details of the social functions. That was easy enough in the day of Mrs. McKinley and other mistresses at the White House, but since the introduction of entertainment on

And Mr. (bachelor) Gillett, of Massa chusetts, is to blame for the whole busi-ness. His life won't be worth living for a time, and you can just bank on that in he is a regular Horatius at the bridge just the same.

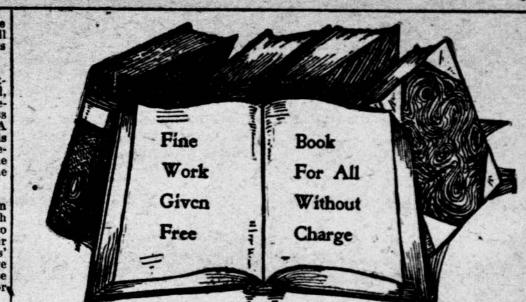

DR. EDWARD EVERETT HALE. The Distinguished Veteran in Good Work,

Who Has Become Chaplain of the Senate. Edward Everett Hale, Chaplain of the United States Senate. To see that name to prominently before the public is like turning back the pages of a book long closed. To see the venerable octogenarian in charge of White House; Commander Cameron McR. Winslow, U. S. N., Naval Aid to the President; Mai. Charles L. Mc-Cawley, U. S. M. C.: Capt. Joseph W. ate Chamber, robed in his somber gown is to take from the walls of memory picture framed and hung there nearly 60 Glidden, 19th Inf., U. S. A.; Lient, Granville R. Fortescue. 10th Cav., U. S. A.; Lieut. George R. Spalding. Corps of Engineers, U. S. A.; Lieut. Carence O. Sherrill. Corps of Engineers, U. S. A.; Lieut. Roscoe C. Buhner, U. S. N., and Lieut. David F. Sellers, U. S. N. vears ago, and to rehearse the story of the life of Edward Everett Hale is to re-view the political and literary history of the country for the last half century and

Sixty years ago, when Webster was Sec retary of State, Edward Everett Hale visited Washington for the first time and became the pastor of the Unitarian Church in this city. Webster has been dead for 50 years, and Dr. Hale's historic church is now a police court, famed as the most unsavory den of its kind in the United Sixty years ago the great Northwest por-tion of the United States was little more than a howling wilderness, and there were but three States west of the Mississippi Representative Sulzer, of New York. River. There were but 26 stars on the will press his bill to have the Government erect a monument to the memory of Samuel J. Tilden. What for?

Hon. Richard Giney, Counsel for the National American Red Cross Association. has named as the committee to conduct the inquiry into Red Cross affairs: United States Senator Redfield Proctor, of Vermont: Hon. John G. Charlisle, of Mentucky, and Representative William Alden Smith of Michigan. This committee is given authority to inquire into the management and differences now existing among the incorporators of the society and its appointment in this manner was at the request of Miss Clara Barton, authorized by the National Convention oblight Red Cross, held

BOOK FREE bachelor, by the way, is responsible for this overturning of moss-covered rules. He is a member of the Committee on Appropriations, and that Committee has been besieged by the Departments for additional of tremendous, incalcuable value to all spaired of finding—an easy perfect, persieged by the Departments for additional clerks, all saying that it was impossible to keep the work going unless there was an addition to the clerical force. The Committee positively refused to add more clerks, and began to cast about for some other way to relieve the congestion in the Departments. Then Representative Gillett very innocently asked if the clerks were working the full seven hours required by law! My, but it was a bombshell!

The Attorney-General was asked to give to the great who was additional clerks, and began to cast about for some other way to relieve the congestion in the Departments. Then Representative Gillett very innocently asked if the clerks were working the full seven hours required by law! My, but it was a bombshell!

The Attorney-General was asked to give gift, because he knows it will mean law and the placed it on sale. Casting away all thought of gain, work of fighting disease, its lines fairly throw with purpose and truth. With skill-gift, because he knows it will mean law to all who receive it—has just been issued at a cost of over $5,000 by a distinguished specialist, a man famous in Europe and humanent cure for Catarrh. With no thought of rest from his arduous labors, he wrote this wonderful work on the cure for Catarrh. With no thought of catarrh. With no thought of the wrote this wonderful work on the cure for Catarrh. With no thought of Catar on sale. Casting away all thought of gain, he gladly offers it to the public as a free gift, because he knows it will mean life throb with purpose and truth. With skilliself to all who reed its pages

FOR years its author, Dr. Speule, B. A., traces all its hidden workings—he shows that the clerks were only working six and one-half hours, and playing the other half. So now the President has issued his order that hereafter the Departments will work labored night and day to discover a percure—the only one—of that terrible that hereafter the Departments will work till half-past four, instead of quitting at 4: as has been the practice for the last 40 years or more.

Induction of the last 40 till half-past four, instead of quitting at 4: sacrificed time, energy and money to gain his end. Step by step he worked his way different phases of the disease and the valong new paths, outstripping his rivals on two continents. At last his efforts were on two continents. At last his efforts were ing clear and interesting manner.

crowned with success! He had discovered SEND FOR THE BOOK AT ONCE

Kansas-Nebraska bill, and the determination to make them free States.

There is a lot of history connected with tenths of those employed by the Government at salaries as above could not get above $10 a week clerking in a store, or copying in a law office. They have 30 days' "sick" leave, on pay, and 30 days' "sick" leave, on pay, if the days at playing sick bring a doctor's certificate, and they always do. Mighty few of them show up at the end of the year with less than 60 days' leave to their credit. It is very easy to fix up one's clothes at home on a physical and the claim's certificate, or to take the "rest cure" at the expense of the Government.

They have 30 days' "sick" leave, on pay, and 30 days' "sick" grant Aid Society," which sent thousands of Eastern men and women into Kansas to seek homes and bring her into the Union a "free" State. He has known intimately all the prominent men of this country for three-quarters of a century, and he has been known to all the reading, thinking people of the country for nearly that long.

They have 30 days' "sick" and they always described to "colonize" Kansas in the interest of the Emistry of the soul was away off somewhere in space. When speaking in public, however, he has a magnetism of personality that claims and holds attention.

It was a distinct shock when he entered the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th history of that august body had "robes" thinking people of the country for nearly that long.

one turns the leaves back to that earlier story, short and simple as it is, "The Man Without a Country," and the feeling comes that had Dr. Hale's pen halted when the last word of that story was written, his mission on earth would have been nobly finished. That 40 years have been added to his life since, leaves the world that gain 50,000 hours of work per day, equivalent to adding 7,143 clerks to the working force. The Government will gain the equivalent of $7,000,000 in wages in a year.

These figures are ample justification for the sweeping change, but such a hold as has gone up from the "poor, overworked" Government clerks you never did hear. They go to their desks at 9 o'clock, and work on prepared matter that requires very little thought, and only mechanical cure—the only one—of that terrible scourge of North America—Catarrh. Fine of God; and the firmament sheweth will still be doing its mission in the pa-

Dr. Hale comes of old Puritan stock, but there is nothing puritanical about him. He is as broad as the world and as high He is as broad as the world and as high as the heavens is his comprehension of human affairs. His father, Nathan Hale, was editor of the Boston Advertiser for 50 years, and it was in Boston that Dr. Hale was born in 1822. Boston loves him devotedly, and he was chosen by the citizens of Boston to stand on the balcony of the State House at midnight as the 20th century was born and read to the assembled multitudes that wonderful Psalm of David beginning, "The heavens declare the glory handiwork."

Dr. Hale is tall and angular and thin this struggle, and the South has never been able to forgive Massachusetts for her work in that direction. Massachusetts deter-

But Mr. Speaker Cannon is different, don't you know, and so the observant at the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th dender here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th dender here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th doner here in the Senator of the Senate Chamber at noon, of the 4th dender here in the Senator of the Sena

United States Senate.

He prefaced his prayer with reading these words from the Epistle to the Gala-

Since the war, Dr. Hale has devoted himself to his clerical labors, now and then bringing out a book to make people think, and writing much for children, of whom he is very fond; but always, after reading the best of his productions, and they are so many, "Phillip Nolan in Texas," "Ten Times One is Ten," and "We the People," being among the newest and best one turns the leaves back to that earlier story, short and simple and the story and simple and the people in their affliction. Block

This was followed by the Lord's Prayer. Dr. Hale owes his appointment as Chap-lain of the Senate to the good offices of Mrs. Hoar, whose pastor he was for many years, and whom she remembered in her will by a bequest of $2,000. It was the dream of her life that Dr. Hale should be Chaplain of the Senate, but when he at last stood before the great lawmaking body of the Nation, the gentle spirit of his life-long friend had flown to lands immortal, WASHER.

This Washer was first to succeed. And with its great morit is yet in

For prices on Washers, Wringers and Cream Separators address THE VETERAN WASHER CO., MANSFIELD, OHIO.

THIS WATCH FREE

Not One Cent of Your Own Money Required

Stem wind and set, American movement, 2-inch thick, gold finished, equal in appear ance to many watches guaranteed for 20 years; guarantee with every watch, Weight only three ounces. Comes in a variety of handsomely engraved cases. Each watch timed, tested, and regulated. Made by the largest manufacturers of reliable watches in

You Can Get This Watch Exactly as Described Without Cost

by answering this advertisement. Fill out the blank herewith, send no money, and we will promptly forward, all charges paid, five packages of our Parisian Houquet Sachet Powder. Sell this to five of your friends at 10c. a package, and return the 50c. to us. When each of the five parties to whom you have sold the packages have each in their turn sent in and sold five packages, we will promptly forward you this watch, or your choice of premiums from our list. Remember, you do not have to send us a cent re in every State testify to our reliability and honesty. Fill out the blank

SUCCESS JEWELRY CO., 39 Temple St., Waterville, Me.

Fill out and return to SUCCESS JEWELRY Co., 39 Temple St., Waterville, Ma.

you are to send me this watch, or my che lum from your list, as soon as the five frie for 5 pack	ages.

t "
NAME
		4
STREET		 S
		2000年	是有多数

TOWN STATE . .